Théodore FRÈRE (1814-1888)

« View from Karnak, Upper Egypt »

Oil on board

Signed "TH. FRERE" lower right.

Titled « Vue prise à Karnak, Haute Égypte » on the reverse.

25 x 40 cm

49.5 x 64.5 cm (with frame)

Théodore Frère painted almost exclusively orientalist paintings, being one of the rare French artists who painted Beirut, Jerusalem, Damascus, and Palmyra.

He exhibited in Paris at Le Salon from 1834 to 1881 and took part in several “Expositions Universelles” in Paris in 1855, 1867 and 1878, and then at the “Salon des Artistes Français” until 1887.
